

Select Your Winter Shoes FROM OUR STOCK

TRADE MARK REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

WINTER IS COMING. WINTER MEANS COLD, RAIN, SNOW, SLUSH AND ICE. WET FEET AT THIS TIME OF THE YEAR MAY CAUSE A SEVERE COLD--OR WORSE.

To protect your health, and the health of your family, you should see to it that your shoes are good, solid leather. Substitutes for leather, like "paper" fibreboard, etc., used in many shoes, do not give proper protection in bad weather.

You take no chances in buying our shoes, for every pair, no matter what the price may be, is made of good, DURABLE LEATHER--no "paper" or other substitutes in any part of them. They're just the kind of good, honest shoes that you need for winter.

Walk-Over, Queen Quality and "Star Brand"

We have a large stock for MEN, WOMEN, and CHILDREN, complete in styles and sizes. WHEN YOU NEED A NEW PAIR OF SHOES COME TO US AND BE FITTED CORRECTLY WITH THE BEST SHOES YOU CAN PUT ON YOUR FEET.

Quarles & Sadler
DRY GOODS CO.

FLYNN'S LICK.

Dr. Simmons, of Granville, was here Sunday, to see Mrs. Henry Pruett, who is quite sick.

G. M. Whitaker, wife and baby, Harold, visited Mrs. Vach Clark, at North Springs.

Miss Carrie Johnson spent Saturday night at the J. M. Johnson home.

J. D. Whitaker, wife and daughter, Cora and Elizabeth, spent the week-end with Cookeville relatives.

R. F. Rogers, of Butler's Landing, visited his brother, S. G. Rogers.

J. L. Rogers and wife visited Mrs. John Lee on Roaring river.

S. G. Rogers is in Knoxville. Miss Stella Spurlock spent Sunday night with her sister, at Rough Point.

Amos Morgan, of Roaring river, visited his sister, Mrs. Lynn, who is still very low with paralysis.

Will Wade and wife, of Cookeville, spent last week with their aunt, Mrs. Billie Jones.

Henry Haile, of Cookeville, was calling on our merchants last Friday.

Sam U. Crawford sold his farm in Whites Bend to a Mr. Masters, consideration $8,000.

George Whitaker is hauling lumber to build a barn.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Reeves, of Gainesboro, visited H. M. Darwin and wife Sunday.

Chas. Burton and wife, J. D. Whitaker and wife, G. F. Haile and wife, M. E. Pate and wife, Misses Jennie Anderson and Virgie Johnson and Sam Crawford were among those who attended church at Antioch Sunday.

Almost every one in this community attended the County Fair at Gainesboro Saturday, and as usual the 11th District won a number of premiums. You can always expect to hear from her. She's able to deliver the goods. Everybody enjoyed the fair.

Mrs. J. C. Darwin and daughter, Mildred, Annette Draper, Mrs. Nola Jared, Miss Jessie Lee and Otis Darwin, of Cookeville, J. M. Draper, wife and children, of Gainesboro, and T. J. Draper and wife were Sunday visitors at the G. G. Darwin home.

GLADDICO.

Mrs. Sam Williamson, of Nashville, is visiting W. M. Boyd and family.

I. A. Dixon spent Sunday with F. A. Dixon and wife.

Miss Gertie Smith, of this place is attending Carthage High School.

Sunday-school at this place is progressing nicely.

Ruff Butler was the guest of Courtney Dixon Saturday night.

Mrs. Malissa Richardson is visiting M. C. Dixon.

Several from this place attended the Agricultural fair at Gainesboro Saturday. Some came back with the blue ribbon.

Willie Washer and wife, of Rome, are visiting relatives at this place.

C. E. Canter and wife were the guests of J. C. Butler and wife Sunday.

We would like to see some letters in the Sentinel from the boys from this place, who are at Camp Gordon.

Health of the community is very good.

E. P. Draper, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is improving.

Charley Butler, J. W. Butler and Hargis Woodard made a business trip to Hartsville Saturday. Lon Butler and G. A. Dixon attended conference at Gallatin, last week.

We are sorry to say that several more of our boys are called to military service.

Miss Sallie Myers, of Cookeville, spent the week-end with home folks.

Charley Butler and wife, Hatle and Esther Dixoh spent Sunday with Henry McCormick and wife.

COOKEVILLE R. 7.

Miss Naoma Fox is improving slowly.

Josh Gentry will build a residence this fall.

Mrs. John Dickerson visited her brother, J. R. Warren.

Mrs. Elizabeth Massey is visiting in Overton county.

Prof. Yeagan's school is progressing nicely at Smith's chapel.

Grover Hix and wife, of Hardscrabble, visited J. J. Gentry and family last week.

Jay Carrington visited in Overton county last Saturday.

Philander Roberts has been unable to work in his machine shop on account of paint poison on one of his hands.

W. C. Hix reports that H. D. Hix has gone into the real estate business.

Dr. J. D. Smith was in this section last Saturday on professional business.

Lowery and Virgie Holloway visited their aunt last Saturday night.

J. O. Green cut a bee tree last week and got about 30 lbs of honey.

Mrs. Ben A. Fox has a teacup that she has been using to keep salt in and now salt is growing on the outside of it.

Mrs. Pate Smith is having a cellar dug. Pate is doing the work.

The writer was at Cookeville last week on business.

Mrs. Estel Dickerson, who was thrown from a horse recently, and received a broken leg, is improving slowly.

Palo Swearingen has completed the telephone lines towards Gainesboro.

Ike Hix and sister, Ida, went to Cookeville on business.

Woolbright and son have moved their sawmill from Little Putnam to Overton county near Dun kin chapel.

Lattie Judd, of Mo., is visiting his father, Nathan Judd.

Lonzo Gentry and Miss Lela Mabry were married last Sunday. Rev. M. W. Swearingen officiating. After the ceremony they took a bridal trip to Spring creek C. P. church.

William Bean, of Leon, visited D. B. Smith Sunday.

W. A. Kinnard has punched a well for the Mabry school house. He has the rep as being a professional well driller.

The writer had about 40 visitors last Sunday.

Success to all the soldier boys. Write to your paperman and give us all the news.

Thomas Allen, who owned the old Peak mill, that was washed away, will rebuild. The carding department will be discontinued.

Ap Woolbright left home some time Friday night. Several looked for him all day Saturday and failed to find him. About sun down Saturday he came up to Marion Jackson's, who carried him to his brother, Jesse Woolbright. Ap would not tell where he had been.

HAYDENBURG R. 2.

Lagrippe seems to have crept from his place of hiding and attacked several people of this place.

Quite a number of people from this community attended the "Great Agricultural Day" at Gainesboro Saturday. This day, with its many interesting features, was certainly a boon to Jackson county, surely the fireat guns across the Atlantic, or some mysterious power, has shaken Jackson county into the midst of the whirl of the times, and she, with her banners unfurled, high schools and agricultural products will march steadily onward in the rivalry of our sister counties.

Harley Huffines made a trip to Defeated Sunday.

V. V. Mosely, wife and little daughter, visited J. B. West

GRANVILLE DEPARTMENT.

I. B. Pate, of Gainesboro, was here on business.

Charlie Cooper and Miss Francis, who are attending T. P. I. spent the week-end at home.

Miss Mary Nell Ferrell has returned from Nashville, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

J. R. Carver, wife and little daughter, Thelma, accompanied by Miss Mayme Fox motored to Nashville for a pleasure trip last Thursday and spent several days.

About 100 from this district attended the "Agricultural Fair" at Gainesboro, Saturday. It was the happy means of bringing together the farmers and business men of the county, which was a benefit to both. Prof Gray won the prize on Irish potatoes, Mrs. Gray won three prizes on needle work. A. K. Fox on sweet potatoes.

An interesting basket ball game was played on high school campus at Gainesboro Saturday. Although each team had only one week's practice the game was well played. The game was divided into two halves of 15 minutes each, with 5 minutes intermission. The score in the first half stood 3 to 0 in favor of Gainesboro. At the close of the game, or second half, Granville had ran away with the game, the score stood 10 to 3 in favor of Granville. Dolph Richmond showed his honesty as referee and Charlie Williamson umpired satisfactory to both sides.

The line up:

Gainesboro	Granville
Sadler Forward	Williamson
Reeves "	Gailbreath
Spivey Center	Grisham
Quarles Guard	Jones
Reeves "	Jones

Gainesboro's points were made by Sadler; Granville by Williamson and Gailbreath.

Dear Editor: It is with pleasure that the writer of this section continues sending news to be published in our progressive and interesting paper. We are quite sure our Jackson county boys in camp, and all others, receive the paper with much pleasure.

Dr. S. B. Fowler, of Gainesboro, was here last week.

R. E. Daniel made a business trip to Buffalo Valley last week.

A. A. Huff, veterinarian, made a business trip to Smith county a few days ago.

Mrs. J. A. Williams, of Nashville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. J. Holleman.

Dr. Baugh, of Flynns Lick, was the guest of B. F. Cooper and family Friday.

Mrs. Dona Gailbreath spent Thursday night as the guest of Miss Mollie Grisham.

Will Byrne, wife and son, Charlie, of Gainesboro, are visiting relatives here.

Guy and Filman Grisham made a business trip to Chestnut Mound Wednesday.

Mr. Ligon, one of Carthage well known and extensive tobacco dealers, was here on business last week.

John McCawley and L. G. Strode, of Gainesboro, were here in the interest of the second Liberty Loan last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cooper accompanied by Dr. Baugh left Sunday for Nashville, where Mrs. Cooper underwent an operation. The operation was a success and Mrs. Cooper is recovering as rapidly as nature will allow.

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Freeman entertained with a six o'clock dinner at their beautiful country home last Wednesday evening in honor of their guests, Misses Ruby James, of Gallatin, and Sadie Gwaltney, of Gordonsville. A number of other guests were present.

The Domestic Problem Solved, or How to Keep a Cook.

This solution requires but few words, BUY THE BEST GROCERIES. A good cook takes pride in her work. Inferior groceries just CAN'T be cooked to your satisfaction, then the cook is the goat.

When you buy groceries from this store you get the BEST. We take great pride in the quality of our groceries, and are always fresh. Buy from us and your wife and children will be happy and well. Our customers must be pleased and satisfied, and to this end we are bending all our energy. Try us on a guarantee to please plan. You will find us on the square in every particular.

Yours for BETTER GROCERIES.

BROOKS BROS.
GAINESBORO, TENN.

Sunday.

Travis Clark and family visited Billy West Sunday.

Rev. Silas Williams preached at Fair View in Macon county Sunday morning and night.

J. A. Huff purchased a saddle horse a few days ago.

Stanton Hackett swoped for a saddle horse Saturday.

Selton Hackett has bought the entire stock of goods at Rough Point, having bought out his brother, Casper. He says that he is some merchant now.

Mr. McDearman, teacher at New Bethel, has been ill for the last few days.

F. F. Craighead made a business trip to Greenwood a few days ago.

Many people went chestnut hunting out on Haydenburg ridge Sunday.